Bold Robbery .- Sunday night a colored man, named George Winter, was robbed of a small gold watch, at the grocery store of P. O'Brien, corner of Third and Listreets. Quite a number of men were in the vicinity of the store, and one of them attacked Winters as he came out of the store, and jerked the watch oft of his vest pocket. Officers Hessler and Grock, of the Fourth Ward, being in the neighborhood, caged the entire party, and while searching for the watch Hastlersaw one named J. A NEW PLAN TO SPRINKLE THE STREETS .-Let a four-inch pipe be laid in the centre of the street even with the surface of the pavement, the upper side of the pipe to be perforated with a great number of small holes. By letting on a pressure from the main the water would be thrown all over the street, thus sprinking it effectually. This could generally be done before daybreak, so as not to interfere with the travel, and wetting it thoroughly as by a ran shower. If necessary, the water could be suffered to merely run without much pressure through the day, thus keeping the street thoroughly wet without interfering with the traffic. Would not this plan be more effectual, and at least ten times cheaper than the ordinary

A WASHINGTONIAN KILLED .- Information has been received here of the death of Captain Mitchell Smith, of the 71st Pennsylvania (Oalifornia) regiment, killed in the fight of Thursday last. Capt. ASSAULT AND BATTERY .- Y esterday afternoon Officer Pendel, of the Fourth Ward, arrested Mr. Nathaniel K. Levitt, of the Capitol rolice, for an assault and battery on Captain Nathan Darling, chief of the Capitol police, committed last week. Mr. Levitt was taken before Justice Bates, who held him to bail in $500 for a hearing on Saturday next. Friends of Mr. Levitt who witnessed the affair says that Capt. Darling made the assault, and that Mr. Levitt defended himself with a cane, with which he inflicted a wound on the captain's head that threatens to prove serious.

A WRITER in the Chronicle is continually complaining of the Mayor and Councils for enact. ing laws for the laying of pavements on the streets sutside of thickly settled portions of the city. Does not this writer know that the foot-pavements are paid for by the people owning the property along the line of pavement? This being the case, why what right has the Chronicle to object to us spending our own money? Does that paper object to a poor man having a pavement in front of his door which he pays for with his own hard-earned
